

Report on One day FDP entitled “CBCS & Its Implications”

One day Faculty Development Program (FDP) entitled “Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) & Its Implications” conducted by ISTE Chapter of APSCE on 16.02.2018. The same FDP was sponsored by Indian Society for Technical Society (ISTE), New- Delhi.

The FDP was inaugurated by Chief guest Dr. Venugopal KR, Principal, UVCE, Bangalore and Guest of Honor Dr. Indumathi TS, National Treasurer, ISTE at 9.30 AM as per the program schedule. Dr. Sangappa SB, National Executive Council member, ISTE and Dr. Prashanth C R, Resource Person, Dr.AIT were graced the occasion. The welcome address is made by Principal, APSCE and the brief report on FDP is presented by Jagadeesh HS, ISTE Coordinator, APSCE. Dr. Venugopal KR has overviewed CBCS from its inception to the present scenario of academics as per the policies made by AICTE. He also linked CBCS with his own profile and explained sensibly to end the inauguration.

The next session is presented by Keynote speaker Dr. Indumathi TS, where she has discussed overall picture starting from curriculum to its implications for future from 11 to 11.45 AM. The next session is vital in introducing the curriculum of VTU in terms of CBCS handled by Dr. Prashanth C R of Dr.AIT. He demystified what exactly the CBCS is and the session was effective in introducing complete of CBCS framework. The session was ended at 1.15PM to lead for lunch break.

The afternoon session started at 2 PM by Dr. S N Sridhara, Principal, KSSEM with the topic Revised Blooms Taxonomy (RBT) Applications in Engineering. The significance and the different levels of RBT with example was very effective and useful to end at 3 PM. Dr. Hariprasad S A, Director, School of Engineering & Technology, Jain University has consolidated various practical issues and remedial actions towards adopting CBCS scheme. He also concluded about student issues and how to resolve the same to lead into valedictory session at 4 PM. Totally there were around fifty participants present for all sessions including the faculty of other Institutions. Finally the FDP was winded at 4.15 PM by collecting feedback from participants.
